BORN TO LEAD, NOT FOLLOW

CHART CONFIDENTIAL

By Paul Tuch

paul.tuch@nielsen.com

Twenty-five years after the release of its self-titled debut album, Bon Jovi continues to generate consumer excitement with every new release. The group's "The Circle" (Universal) debuts at No. 1 on Top Albums with 30,000 units sold. The set is the band's third consecutive chart-topping album, following "Lost Highway," which spent four weeks at No. 1 beginning in July 2007, and "Have a Nice Day," which launched on top in October 2005. "We Weren't Born to Follow," the first single from "The Circle," vaults 57-29 on the Billboard Canadian Hot 100, with a 264% growth in digital download sales to 2,000 and a 20% gain in audience to 5.2 million impressions (34-26 on Hot 100 Airplay).

Four additional debuts dot the top 10 on Top Albums. The "Much Dance 2010" collection (Sony Music) enters at No. 3 (13,000), matching the debut position of last year's edition of the series. Quebec star Daniel Belanger starts at No. 5 with "Nous" (Select), selling 12,000 and marking his second top 10 debut and his second-best rank; "L'echec Du Material" began at No. 2 in 2007. Blue Rodeo ropes a No. 6 launch with the double album "Things We Left Behind" (Warner). The set's opening sum of 11,000 is the band's best first-week total in the Nielsen SoundScan era, topping the 9,000 copies sold out of the gate of 2005's "Are You Ready." At No. 7, country artist Johnny Reid earns his second straight top 10 debut with his first holiday release, "Christmas" (Universal).

Ke$ha's "Tik Tok" (Sony Music) holds at No. 1 on the Hot 100 for a second week, nabbing Greatest Gainer/Airplay honours. The track bounds 14-8 on Hot 100 Airplay (10.6 million in audience, up 26%), 7-4 on CHR/Top 40 (7-4) and 46-39 on Hot AC.

Bon Jovi's 'Circle' rolls to No. 1 on Top Albums.

Lady Gaga's "Bad Romance" (Universal) claims the Hot 100's Greatest Gainer/Digital award (4-3), surging 4-2 on Hot Digital Songs (12,000 downloads, up 36%). On Hot 100 Airplay, "Bad Romance" rises 9-6 in its fourth week.

The Hot Shot Debut on the Hot 100 belongs to 2009 "American Idol" runner-up Adam Lambert, whose "For Your Entertainment" (Sony Music) arrives at No. 33. The title cut from his debut album, due next week, storms onto Hot Digital Songs at No. 18 (3,000, up 207%).

Singer/songwriter Anya Marina makes her first appearance on the Hot 100, as "Whatever You Like" (Warner) debuts at No. 63, with all of the song's chart points deriving from download sales. The track, which debuts on Hot Digital Songs at No. 33 (2,000 downloads sold), is a cover of T.I.'s smash that reached No. 12 on the Hot 100 last year.

The most popular songs by emerging Canadian artists according to all-format airplay audience impressions measured by Nielsen BDS and digital sales data compiled by Nielsen SoundScan. To qualify for this chart an artist must a) be Canadian and meet the CRTC 'A' definition (music or lyrics principally performed by a Canadian artist) and b) the selection must qualify as Canadian content (CanCon). Artists are considered emerging until 12 months after the date their first Canadian Hot 100 charting entry reaches the top 40. Artists that pre-date the Hot 100's June 2007 launch are judged on the historic CRTC regulations for Hit and Non-Hit. Once an artist has a title disqualified on these points, their entire catalogue is disqualified. ♦ Titles showing an increase in overall points over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. ♦ Indicates CanCon. ©2009, Nielsen Business Media Inc.

LOLA KICKS UP HER 'HEELS'

ARTIST SPOTLIGHT
By Paul Tuch
paul.tuch@nielsen.com

"High Heels," the debut single from the singer Lola, has seen airplay and sales success, helping the track reach the Emerging Canadian Artists chart and bubble under the Canada CHR/Top 40 list.

The 22-year-old Torontonion always knew she was meant to perform onstage. Quoting from her bio, she says, "Unlike some, I wasn't born with a silver spoon or raised within a wealthy family and got it easy. I basically worked very hard and believed in myself and grew into being an artist all on my own."

For a time, it seemed like Lola wouldn't get her chance. When the artist was 14, her mother Theresa became ill and Lola was her principal caregiver until she died in March.

Lola hits CHR/Top 40 airwaves.

The singer put her blossoming career on hold in the fall of 2008, but her single "High Heels" was making the rounds in the urban music community and a number of independent labels started offering her deals.

Lola, who is represented by CP Management, signed with Universal Music Canada earlier this year.

"High Heels" first started getting strong airplay in Halifax, Nova Scotia, in June and has since gained spins in Toronto; Red Deer, Alberta; and Moncton, New Brunswick.

CANADIAN INDIES GROW AT ROCK

Two Canadian independent groups appear in the top 20 on the Rock airplay chart. Crash Karma, made up of former members of home-grown modern rock staples the Tea Party, Our Lady Peace and I Mother Earth, jumps 15-12 with "Awake," while Social Code has its best charted song, moving 19-16 with "Satisfied." The act's previous Rock peak was No. 25 with "Bomb Hands" in May 2007.

Jay-Z's "Empire State of Mind," with Alicia Keys, vaults 23-19 on the CHR/Top 40 chart. It's his second straight top 20 hit from "The Blueprint 3," following "Run This Town," which peaked at No. 5 and is No. 16 this week.

BETWEEN THE BULLETSA GOOD 'NIGHT' FOR PAISLEY

Brad Paisley lands the top debut on the Country airplay chart at No. 38 with the title cut from his latest album, "American Saturday Night." The third single from the set is the follow-up to two No. 1 songs, "Then" and "Welcome to the Future."

Nickelback scores the largest spin increase of the week at Hot AC with "Never Gonna Be Alone." The track, which leaps 21-13, follows three top five hits at the format from the act's latest album, "Dark Horse," including the No. 1 "Gotta Be Somebody."

"Lonesome Highway," the first single from Jacksoul's "SOULmate," due for release Dec. 1, is the top new entry on the AC chart at No. 26.

CRIA LOOKS AHEAD

By Robert Thompson, Billboard Canadian Correspondent
robertthompson8@sympatico.ca

The Canadian Recording Industry Assn. (CRIA) says that a new study illustrates the importance of government funding for the music business as well as the impact of file-sharing.

The study, by the Martin Prosperity Institute in Toronto, says that Canada's "failure to cluster" its music industry is keeping it from growing larger and more competitive. The preliminary findings showed that on a per capita basis Canada's music industry outperforms the United States when it comes to music business establishments (labels, distributors, studios and publishing).

However, despite respective businesses in each country having a similar average number of employees—5.9 in the States and 5.7 in Canada—Canadian businesses produce far less revenue. U.S. music industry businesses earn an average of $4.1 million ($3.9 million), while similar Canadian businesses only earn $540,000 (U.S. $515,000).

"In Canada, the fact that the music business is more evenly distributed is certainly a positive thing for musicians looking for opportunities in smaller cities," the study says. "But failure to cluster in a few key centres may be discouraging the Canadian music industry from growing larger and more internationally competitive."

"We have a music industry composed mainly of small companies that face enormous challenges surviving day to day, let alone competing on the world stage," CRIA president Graham Henderson says. "This underlines the need for continued public policy support for eligible Canadian music businesses, as well as the urgent need for Copyright Act reforms to better protect those businesses and the artists they represent."

- Hawksley Workman has left Universal Music Canada, but that isn't slowing down the prolific Canadian singer/songwriter. Workman has announced two new albums—"Meat" and "Milk"—that will be released in early 2010, supported by a Canadian tour.

Both will appear on Workman's own Isadora label, which was used for his debut, "For Him and the Girls." "Meat" will appear as a physical album Jan. 19, likely distributed through Six Shooter

Hawksley Workman, part of a balanced musical diet

Records, according to manager Shauna De Cartier. "Milk" will be released digitally, with singles put out during a five-month period. The first, "We'll Make Time," will debut Nov. 24 on iTunes.

A 23-date tour kicks off March 5 in Courtenay, British Columbia.

- Canada's "majorly indie" publishing company, ole, continues to win accolades, taking home one SESAC Nashville Award and two BMI County Awards last week in Nashville. Taylor Swift's "Picture to Burn" (Liz Rose/Taylor Swift), from the artist's self-titled debut album, took home one of the BMI awards, with the second going to Dierks Bentley's "Trying to Stop Your Leaving" (Brett Beavers/James Beavers), from the 2006 album "Long Trip Alone." The SESAC award went to "White Horse" (Liz Rose/Taylor Swift), from Swift's "Fearless" album.
